1. BEFORE THE AUCTION

Pre-sale Estimates

The pre-sale estimates in US$ serves only as a guideline and do not represent the exact equivalent of estimates in S$, as the sale will be conducted in Singapore Dollars (S$ 1 = US$ 0.75). Any bid between the high and the low pre-sale estimates would, in our opinion, offer a fair chance of success. However, all lots, depending on the degree of competition, can realise prices either above or below the pre-sale estimates.

Reserves

The reserve is the minimum price the seller is willing to accept below which the lot will not be sold.

Condition of Lots

Prospective buyers are encouraged to inspect the property at the pre-sale exhibition. Solely as a convenience, Larasati may provide condition reports. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalog description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

2. THE AUCTION

Conditions of Business

The Auction is governed by the Conditions of Business printed in this catalog. These Conditions of Business apply to all aspects of the relationship between Larasati and actual and prospective bidders and buyers. Anyone considering bidding in the auction should read them carefully. Successful Bids

Currency Conversion

Bidding is carried out in Singapore Dollars, but Larasati may provide a currency conversion board in the saleroom for the convenience of bidders. S. SUDJOJONO

A Door's Journey into Art

A door with three souls

Three distinct paintings converge on a single surface, creating a captivating narrative of contrasts and harmonies. Each panel offers a separate world, yet together they form a cohesive whole, challenging the boundaries of traditional canvas and inviting you to unlock the stories within

THE DOOR AS MANIFESTO

In 1965, at a moment when Indonesia itself stood at the edge of historic rupture, S. Sudjojono turned inward—toward home. Pintupun Bisa Digambar (“Even a Door Can Be Painted”) is at once disarmingly domestic and profoundly philosophical. Painted in oil directly onto a two-meter wooden door, the work transforms a utilitarian surface into a living archive of memory, affection, and artistic conviction.

The origin of the painting, as recounted by his daughter Pandan Sudjojono, is intimate and tender: the paint on the guest room door had begun to fall off. Rather than repainting it conventionally, Sudjojono reassured his wife that it would look just fine in a short while—and proceeded to transform the surface into a work of art in celebration of little Djuang’s third birthday. The gesture is quintessential Sudjojono. The ordinary is never merely ordinary. A door is not just a door; it is a threshold. And for Sudjojono, a threshold is a site of truth.

Sudjojono, long celebrated as a pioneer of Indonesian modernism and a vocal advocate of jiwa ketok—the visible soul—believed that art must reveal inner life rather than decorative beauty. By choosing a door as his canvas, he enacted this belief materially. The painting rejects the hierarchy between “high art” and daily life. The domestic surface becomes a site of artistic legitimacy.

FAMILY AS A LIVING SUBJECT

A door marks transition: between inside and outside, private and public, childhood and adulthood. In this work, those thresholds become layered with imagery—animals, figures, memory fragments—suggesting that family life itself is a crossing of worlds. The top panel swirls with fantastical, almost dreamlike creatures, evoking imagination and myth. Below, the vertical panels unfold scenes more grounded in lived experience: animals of vitality and instinct; figures poised in quiet dignity; a young girl carrying a toddler; a tree rooted firmly in earth.

Unlike many of Sudjojono's politically charged works, this painting turns toward personal mythology. The figures depicted include the artist himself, his wife—radiant in her favourite dress from her days as a radio star—holding her Radio Star award, and their children: Pandan, Wicky, and little Djuang, whose third birthday occasioned the work.

Here, Sudjojono does not monumentalize national heroes; he monumentalizes family. His wife stands not merely as muse but as accomplished woman—an artist in her own right—her award a symbol of her identity beyond domesticity. The children are rendered not as static portraits but as presences in motion, integrated into the flowing narrative of the door. The tree at the base becomes a quiet metaphor for lineage: roots below, branches reaching upward, a living testament to continuity. For Sudjojono, his family was his main pillar of strength and comfort.

Sudjojono's brushwork—expressive, slightly raw, alive with gesture—retains the immediacy of affection. There is no attempt to idealize. Instead, he grants his family the same artistic seriousness he granted the nation. This parity reveals his deepest conviction: that truth resides equally in the home as in the battlefield of ideas.

The animals that populate the panels—roosters, deer, perhaps dogs or fantastical hybrids—introduce a symbolic register. In Sudjojono's oeuvre, animals often embody vitality, instinct, and spiritual undercurrents. Here they mingle with human figures, suggesting the porousness between imagination and reality, between childhood fantasy and adult memory.

The uppermost horizontal panel, dreamlike and fluid, may be read as the realm of memory itself—fragmented yet luminous. Beneath it, the vertical descent of imagery mirrors the act of opening a door: from mind to body, from thought to grounded life.

Painted in 1965, the year of immense political upheaval in Indonesia, this work's quiet domesticity becomes even more poignant. While history convulsed outside, Sudjojono inscribed permanence inside his home. The door becomes both refuge and record. Each time it opened or closed, the painted family crossed its own image—living within art, art within life.

In this sense, Pintupun Bisa Digambar is less an object than an environment. It collapses distinctions: between painting and architecture, between biography and aesthetics, between the public persona of a national art pioneer and the private tenderness of a father celebrating his child's birthday.

Ultimately, this painting exemplifies Sudjojono's lifelong commitment to jiwa khetok (visible soul). If "even a door can be painted," then art is not confined to canvas or gallery. It lives wherever the artist's soul meets the world—whether in political struggle or in the quiet joy of family celebration.

The work stands as a testament to Sudjojono not only as a foundational figure of Indonesian modernism but as a man deeply embedded in love, partnership, and fatherhood. On this wooden threshold, he inscribed not ideology but intimacy. And in doing so, he reminds us that the most radical act an artist can perform is sometimes the simplest: to see, to love, and to paint what is closest to the heart.

CONDITIONS OF BUSINESS FOR BUYERS

We hereby inform all those participating in the auction, that it shall be held subject to the following conditions and that anyone taking part in it, hereby accepts these conditions as applicable.

Larasati as agent

As auctioneer, One Larasati Arts Pte Ltd here-in referred to as Larasati acts as agent for the Seller. Unless otherwise agreed, sales of goods at this auction result in contracts made between the seller, through our agency, with the buyer.

Definitions of terms used in these conditions

In the conditions set out below, some terms are used regularly that need explanation. They are as follows:

- the "Buyer" means the person with highest bid accepted by the auctioneer;
- a "Lot" means any item deposited with us for sale at auction and, in particular, the item or items described against any lot number in any catalog;
- the "Hammer Price" means the charge payable by the auctioneer in relation to a lot;
- the "Buyer's Premium" means the charge payable by the buyer as a percentage of the hammer price;
- the "Reserve" means the amount below which we agree with the Seller that the lot cannot be sold;
- "Forgery" means a lot constituting an imitation originally conceived and executed as a whole with a fraudulent intention to deceive as to authorship, origin, age, period, culture or source where the correct description as to such matters is not reflected by the description in the catalog and which at the date of the auction had a value materially less than it would have had if it had been in accordance with the description in the catalog. Accordingly, no lot shall be capable of being a forgery by reason of any damage and/or restoration work of any kind (including repainting);
- the "Insured Value" means the amount that Larasati in its absolute discretion from time to time shall consider to be the value for which a lot should be covered by insurance (whether or not insurance is arranged by us).

BEFORE THE SALE

Examination of goods

Prospective buyers are strongly advised to examine personally any goods in which they are interested, before the auction takes place. Condition reports are usually available on request.

Larasati is not responsible for any faults or defects in any lot or the correctness of:

- any statement as to the authorship;
- origin;
- date and age of the lot;
- attribution;
- genuineness;
- provenance and conditions of any lot.

Larasati does not make or give, nor has any person in the employment of Larasati any authority to make or give, any representation or warranty regarding the authorship, origin, date, age, size, medium, attribution, genuineness, description, provenance, condition or estimate selling price of any lot.

Catalog descriptions

Statements by us in the catalog or condition report, or made orally or in writing elsewhere, regarding the authorship, origin, date, age, size, medium, attribution, genuineness, provenance, condition or estimate selling price of any lot are merely statements of opinion given in good faith, and are not to be relied on as statements of definitive fact. Catalog illustrations are for guidance only, and should not be relied on either to determine the tone or colour of any item or to reveal imperfections. Estimates of the selling price should not be relied on as a statement that this price is either the price at which the lot will sell or its value for any other purpose.

Many items are of an age or nature which precludes their being in perfect condition and some descriptions in the catalog or given by way of condition report make reference to damage and/or restoration. We provide this information for guidance only and the absence of such reference does not imply that an item is free from defects or restoration nor does the reference to particular defects imply the absence of any others.

Buyers Responsibility

Buyers are responsible for satisfying themselves concerning the condition of the goods and the matters referred to in the catalog description.

AT THE SALE

Refusal of admission

Our sale takes place on our own premises or premises over which we have control for the sale, and we have the right, exercisable at our complete discretion, to refuse admission to the premises or attendance at the auction.

Registration before bidding

Every prospective buyer must complete and sign a registration form and provide identification before making a bid at auction. Prospective buyers should be aware that we usually require buyers to undergo a credit check.

Bidding as Principal

When making a bid, prospective buyer will be accepting personal liability, unless it has been agreed in writing, at the time of registration, that a bidder is acting as agent on behalf of a third party acceptable to us.

Commission Bids

If a prospective buyer gives us instructions to bid on his behalf, by using the form printed after the catalog entries, we shall use reasonable efforts to do so, provided these instructions are received not later than 24 hours before the sale. Bids should be placed in Singapore Dollars. Bids placed in other currencies will be converted to Singapore Dollars using the one month forward rate of exchange quoted to us by UOB Singapore at opening on the date of the auction and the Singapore Dollars figure may be subject to rounding. The buyer's invoice will be in Singapore Dollars and we shall not be liable to the buyer for any loss suffered as a result of exchange rate movements after the date of the sale. If we receive commission bids on a particular lot for identical amounts, and at auction these bids are the highest bids for the lot, it will be sold to the person whose bid was received first. Commission bids are undertaken subject to other commitments at the time of the sale, and the conduct of the sale may be such that we are unable to bid as requested. Since this is undertaken as a free service to prospective buyers on the terms stated, we cannot accept liability for failure to make a commission bid. Prospective buyers should therefore always attend personally if they wish to be certain of bidding.

Telephone Bids

If prospective buyers make arrangements with us not less than 24 hours before the sale, we shall use reasonable efforts to contact the bidders to enable them to participate in bidding by telephone, but under no circumstances will we be liable to either the seller or any prospective buyer as a result of failure to do so.

Bidding by Internet LIVE Auctions

For LIVE Auctions, the Company does not provide in-house real-time bidding service. However, bids may be placed through the Internet Bid System provided by INVALUABLE (hereinafter referred to as the "Real-Time Internet Bidding"). Any person who intends to participate must register through INVALUABLE as the appointed third party company for Real-Time Internet Bidding and is bound to the INVALUABLE's Terms and Conditions of the sale. Please note that for this "particular" sale, no surcharge of 5% will be charged on top of 22% buyer's premium.

Currency Converter

At this auction, a currency converter may be operated, based on the one month forward rates of exchange quoted to us by UOB Singapore at opening on the date of the auction. Bidding will however take place in Singapore Dollars. The currency converter is not always reliable, and errors may occur beyond our control either in the accuracy of the lot number displayed on the converter, or the foreign currency equivalent of Singapore Dollars bids.

We shall not be liable to the buyer for any loss suffered as a result of the buyer following the currency converter, rather than the Singapore Dollars bidding.

Video images

At this auction there will be a video screen. Mistakes may occur in its operation, and we cannot be liable to the buyer regarding either the correspondence of the image to the lot being sold or the quality of the image as a reproduction of the original.

The auctioneer's discretion

The auctioneer has the right at his absolute discretion to refuse any bid, to advance the bidding in such manner as he may decide, to withdraw or divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots and, in the case of error or dispute, to put an item up for bidding again.

Successful bid

Subject to the auctioneer's discretion, the striking of his hammer marks the acceptance of the highest bid and the conclusion of a contract for sale between the seller and the buyer.

AFTER THE SALE

Buyer's Premium

In addition to the hammer price, the buyer must pay us the buyer's premium at a rate of 22% of the hammer price of the lot and transport/shipping charges.

Payment

Following the sale, the buyer must provide us with his or her name and permanent address and, if so requested, details of the bank from which payment will be made and then pay the full amount due (comprising the hammer price and the buyer's premium) within seven days after the date of the sale.

The buyer will not acquire title to the lot until all amounts due to us have been paid to us, even in circumstances where we have released the lot to the buyer.

Collection of Purchases

Unless we specifically agree to the contrary, we shall retain items sold until all amounts due to us, or to Larasati or to any of its other subsidiaries, have been paid in full. Items retained will be covered by our insurance from the date of the sale for a period of seven days or, if by then the goods have been collected, to the time of collection. After seven days or from the time of collection, whichever is the earlier, the lot will be entirely at the buyer's risk.

Packing and handling

We shall use all reasonable efforts to take care when handling and packing a purchased lot but remind the buyer that after seven days or from the time of collection, the lot is entirely at the buyer's risk.

Remedies for non-payment or failure to collect purchases

If the buyer fails to make payment within seven days, we shall be entitled to exercise one or more of the following rights or remedies:

- to charge interest at a rate per annum not exceeding UOB Singapore base rate plus 4 per cent on the full amount due to the extent it remains unpaid for more than seven days after the date of the sale;
- to exercise a lien on any of the buyer's property which may be in our possession for any purpose and, following 14 days' notice to the buyer of the amount outstanding and remaining unpaid, arrange the sale of such property and apply the proceeds in discharge of the amount outstanding to us;
- where several amounts are owed by the buyer to us, or to Larasati, or to any of its other subsidiaries, in respect of different transactions, to apply any amount paid to discharge any amount owed in respect of any particular transaction whether or not the buyer so directs;
- to reject at any future auction any bids made by the buyer or on his behalf or obtain a deposit from the buyer before accepting any bids;

If the buyer fails to make payment within 45 working days, we shall in addition be entitled to exercise any one or more of the following remedies:

- to issue proceedings on behalf of the seller against the buyer to recover the full amount due, together with the costs of such proceedings on a full indemnity basis and with interest, charged at 4% per annum above UOB Singapore base rate;
- to cancel the sale of the lot or any other item sold to the buyer at the same auction;
- to arrange a resale of the lot publicly or privately, and, if this results in a lower price being obtained, claim the balance from the buyer together with any costs incurred in connection with the buyer's failure to make payment.

Failure to collect

Where purchases are not collected within seven days after the sale, whether or not payment has been made, we shall arrange storage at the buyer's expense, and only release the items purchased after payment has been made in full of storage, removal, insurance and any other costs incurred, together with payment of all other amounts due to us.

Forgeries

If within 6 (six) months of the date of the auction the Buyer satisfies us that the Lot is a Forgery, with the condition that claim must be accompanied with satisfactory evidence in the form of a written opinion of at least 3 (three) independent experts with knowledge on the related property, confirming that the lot is a forgery, then:

- (i) If the Buyer at that time has not yet paid the full amount due, we shall have the right to cancel the sale and/or.
- (ii) If the Buyer has paid the full amount and if we have at the time not paid the seller the whole or part of the full amount due to the seller, then we will refund to the Buyer the purchase price of the lot and/or.
- (iii) If the Buyer had paid the full amount and if we at that time had also paid the Seller the whole or part of the full amount due, then the Seller must refund to us, on demand, the total amount paid. We shall then refund the total amount received from the Seller to the Buyer plus any balance due to the Buyer to pay back the full purchase price of the lot. The Buyer does not reserve the right to claim any interests on the purchase price paid by the Buyer. In the latter case we shall exercise a lien over any property of the Seller under our control as security for the amount due.

We reserve the right to seek for further expert opinion. There will be no refund if there is a conflict of opinion among the related experts. Larasati is not responsible for any faults or defects in any lot, including the genuineness of the work.
